1. A large number of Soviet engineers have been employed by the Fukien Provincial authorities to direct the repair of airfields and air installations in Foochow, Amoy, Wowa (喔 哇)* and Ch'angt'ing (116-20, 25-45). The Soviets working in Foochow are quartered in foreign-style houses in a white-walled compound behind the former German Consulate in Chihch'ienshan (芝前山).
2. Ihsu (義序) Airfield, Foochow, sometimes called Nant'ai Airfield has been completed and the surrounding area is heavily guarded. Hoshan (禾山) Airfield, Amoy, sometimes called Kaochi or Wushan Airfield, has four damaged planes parked on it. The authorities in Amoy are drafting civilian workers to speed up repairs to the field.

* [] Comment. The town of Wowa or Wowa cannot be found in references available in this office. The name Wowa may be another alternate name for Hoshan Airfield.
